

Mary Bolton

Biography

Mary Bolton is a Development Consultant with the Organization and Human Resource Development section of the West Virginia Division of Personnel. She develops and delivers interactive programs covering a wide variety of topics including: change leadership, team building, performance management, customer service, and meeting facilitation.

She earned her M.S. degree from Marshall University in the area of Adult & Technical Education with a focus in Training and Organizational Development. She earned a Regents B.A. degree from West Virginia State University and the designation as a Certified Professional in Learning and Performance from the Association for Talent Development (formerly ASTD) Certification Institute.

Mary has over fifteen years of experience in the learning and performance improvement field in both the public sector and as an independent trainer and consultant. Her current responsibilities include the research, design, development, and facilitation of interactive leadership and employee development programs. She also provides coaching and consulting service to supervisors and employees.

She is an entrepreneur who has received a Vision Award from the WV Minority Business Development and an Excellence Award for Program Awareness from the National Child Support Enforcement Association. She is also the Past President of the Association for Talent Development West Virginia Chapter, and a mentor to young women in her community.

Mary enjoys spending time with her family, small group Bible discussions, learning new things, exercising, cooking, gardening, and the arts.

Organization and Human Resource Development
"Facilitating Learning, Guiding Change Efforts, Improving Performance"
West Virginia Division of Personnel
Department of Administration
Phone: 304.558.3950 x57244
Email: Mary.S.Bolton@wv.gov
Website: www.personnel.wv.gov/ohrd